

About this Global Entrepreneurship Training (GET) - Special Short Edition

The program is to help the current and future global leaders from developing countries staying in Korea, especially those in the public sectors, experience entrepreneurship mindset, and help them acquire relevant knowledge that can help improve their current work/business(s), chances for creating new start-up businesses, and their job performance so they may contribute better for their country economy. It is also expected that the participants transfer the information they learned to their employees, colleagues, and students. In addition, the training is intended to help participants understand themselves better and find what inspires them, what they really want to do, and what their vision is with honesty and integrity.

What is the GET Program?

General Objective:

- The Global Entrepreneurship Training (GET) was established in 2008 by Handong Global University, and since then, it has been held 2 – 3 times a year usually in developing countries. A total of 28 GET sessions were offered so far including the special sessions and produced more than 3000 graduates in 15 countries in three different continents. The main purpose of the program is to help plant hope, motivation, and confidence in the minds of the participants, the future national leaders from developing countries, for them to bring about a positive change to their countries via business, technology, and law built on honesty and integrity.
- Tangible outputs that GET intends to accomplish:
To enable participants via the program are to
 - 1) to help identify either a local need or opportunity that can be tapped for economy development,
 - 2) to help create creative ideas/ventures to satisfy such needs, and
 - 3) to help utilize the opportunity/advantage to improve the economy and jobs.
- Big picture:
It is hoped that the GET Special Edition participants of the program turn into creative entrepreneurs through the experience offered in the program, and by producing new innovative ideas, ventures, and job openings, they contribute for reduction of poverty and economic stabilization for their countries.
