Chapter 2 Payment of Remuneration

Article 5 (Method of Paying Remuneration)

In principle, remuneration shall be paid in cash or by demand deposit.

Article 6 (Period for the Calculation of Remuneration)

Remuneration shall be calculated for the period from the 1st day to the last day of the month.

Article 7 (Date of Remuneration Payment)

Remuneration shall be paid on the 17th of every month; if the date of remuneration payment falls on a Saturday or a holiday, however, remuneration shall be paid on the immediately preceding day.

Article 8 (Calculation of Remuneration)

1. Remuneration shall be calculated for the period beginning the date the order of appointment or reinstatement is given up to the day before the date the order of temporary retirement, suspension from office, or dismissal is given.

2. Remuneration shall be calculated and paid based on position class and pay step as of the 1st day of the payment month.

3. Reductions in remunerations due to disciplinary punishments, temporary retirements, release from duty, or absence occurring before the date of remuneration payment shall be made beginning the relevant month; if any reason for reduction occurs after the date of remuneration payment, the remuneration shall be reduced beginning the 1st day of the following month.

4. Notwithstanding the provision under Clause 1, if a school staff member who had continuously worked for 2 years or longer has been dismissed (except cases wherein the school staff member is dismissed prior to the date of remuneration payment because he/she was sentenced to imprisonment or more severe punishment, or fired or released from office), the full amount of remuneration for the month inclusive of the day before the date the order of dismissal is given shall be paid; if an order of dismissal of a school staff member was issued after the date of remuneration payment, however, the remuneration already paid shall not be collected regardless of the number of years of continuous service.

5. In case of retirement due to age limit, notwithstanding the provisions of Clause 1, full amount of allowance (reduced amount if the allowance is reduced due to disciplinary punishments or other reasons) for the month inclusive of the day of the retirement shall be paid. (Newly established on Apr. 17, 2014)

Article 9 (Reduction of Remuneration During the Period of Disciplinary Punishments or Release from Duty)
The reduction of remuneration during the period of disciplinary punishments or release from duty shall be 50% of the average daily wage during the period provided the reduction does not exceed 10% of the amount of monthly remuneration paid even in cases wherein the disposition of salary reduction has been imposed several times.

Article 10 (Reduction of Remuneration During the Period of Absence)
If a school staff member has been absent for the number of days exceeding his/her number of days of yearly leave, his/her remuneration shall be reduced by 50% of the average daily wage for each day of absence exceeding the number of days of yearly leave provided the reduction does not exceed 10% of the amount of the monthly remuneration paid.

Article 11 (Reduction of Remunerations During the Period of Temporary Retirement)
1. School staff members who temporarily retired due to physical or mental disorder shall be paid 70% of their remunerations during the period of temporary retirement for 1 year, and 30% when the period of temporary retirement exceeds more than 1 year. In case of those who temporarily retired due to tubercular diseases, 80% of their remunerations shall be paid during the period of temporary retirement for 1 year, and 30% when the period exceeds more than 1 year. However, in case of temporary retirement due to any occupational disease or injury, the full amount of remuneration shall be paid during the period for 1 year and 30% when the temporary retirement period exceeds more than 1 year.(Amended on Jan. 17, 2017)
2. Child care retirement allowances are paid during the period of temporary retirement but the amount shall be decided separately. (Amended on Apr. 3, 2012)
3. In the case of temporary retirements other than those specified under Clause 1 or 2, no remuneration shall be paid.
